PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Students,

Welcome to the Baltimore School of the Bible! Whether you are returning to continue your studies or starting your journey with us for the first time, I am excited to have you as part of our school family.

At BSOTB, our mission is to equip you with the knowledge and understanding of God's Word so that you may live it out with confidence and share it with others. I encourage you to embrace every opportunity to learn, grow, and be challenged in your faith.

Your commitment to study is an investment in your future and in the Kingdom of God. Remember, you are not alone on this journey—our faculty, staff, and fellow students are here to support and encourage you every step of the way.

Let us pursue excellence in our studies, integrity in our lives, and a passion for reaching others with the Gospel.

Thank you for choosing BSOTB. I look forward to seeing how God will use you in this season and beyond.

In His Service,

Shahad Ali

BALTIMORE SCHOOL OF THE BIBLE

Academic Year 2026-2027

THE SCHOOL'S VISION

Baltimore School of the Bible's vision is to present the Word of God in such a manner that it may readily be understood and to bring the students into a vital and effective relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ. The students will then prove to be a channel to further spread the Word and to strengthen the testimony of Bible-believing churches.

Comprehensive and systematic courses in Bible Study are offered. As the Holy Spirit takes the things of Christ and reveals them to us, we can expect rich blessings. In order to achieve the widest possible reach, the classes are open to all.

In these days of confusion and uncertainty, the student will find encouragement and comfort in the unchanging and authoritative Word of God.

STUDENT CONDUCT AND ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Baltimore School of the Bible is committed to providing an environment that reflects the character and teachings of our Lord Jesus Christ. Students are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that honors God, respects others, and upholds the testimony of the Gospel.

Christ calls us to walk in love, truth, and holiness (Micah 6:8; 1 Thessalonians 4:11-12). Therefore, students are expected to demonstrate Christian maturity in speech, dress, attitude, and relationships with others both in and out of the classroom. Disruptive, disrespectful, or immoral behavior will not be tolerated.

Academic integrity is an essential part of biblical stewardship and honesty. Students are expected to complete all assignments, exams, and projects with integrity, giving proper credit to all sources used. Plagiarism, cheating, fabrication of information, and any other form of academic dishonesty are considered serious offenses and violate biblical principles (Proverbs 12:22; Exodus 20:16). All students are encouraged to submit their best work as an act of worship to God (Colossians 3:23-24). When challenges arise, students are urged to seek help, pray for wisdom, and remain faithful in their academic and spiritual walk.

By enrolling at Baltimore School of the Bible, students agree to uphold these standards as part of their commitment to Christ and His Word.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

Weather-Related Delays, Closures, and Attendance Adjustments

The Baltimore School of the Bible follows the Baltimore County evening schedule regarding weather-related delays and closures. In the event of inclement weather or emergency conditions, students should expect communication via email from the administration team and are encouraged to monitor the school's official website and social media pages for live updates and announcements. Unless otherwise communicated, all classes and activities will operate as scheduled.

Recognizing that weather conditions and unforeseen circumstances are ultimately beyond our control, the Baltimore School of the Bible reserves the right to extend the academic semester, modify the instructional calendar, or schedule make-up classes as necessary to accommodate absences, weather-related interruptions, or other circumstances affecting regular class attendance and instructional time.

COURSE WITHDRAWAL POLICY

Although the Baltimore School of the Bible no longer offers course audit options, students may voluntarily withdraw from one or more courses at any time during the academic semester. All withdrawal requests must be submitted in writing to the Records Manager, Mr. John Valiquet, at valiquetjohn@yahoo.com.

Students are encouraged to submit withdrawal requests promptly to ensure accurate academic and enrollment records.

REPORT CARD REQUEST PROCEDURE

At the conclusion of each academic semester, students may request a copy of their report card by submitting an email request to the Records Manager, Mr. John Valiquet, (johnvaliquet@gmail.com). The subject line of the email should read: "Report Card Request."

In the body of the email, students should include their full legal name and student identification number (last four digits of their Social Security Number) to assist in verifying enrollment records.

Students will receive notification from the administrator once report cards are available, along with any additional instructions.

Any questions or concerns regarding final grades or report cards should first be directed to the course professor. If further assistance is needed, students may then contact the school administrator for additional review or guidance.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

All prospective graduates must declare intent to graduate when they have obtained no less than 24 of the 36 required credits. This must be done by the end of September of the academic year in which the prospective graduate intends to graduate. If the prospective graduate has less than 24 credits due to missing grades or grades less than 65, they need to contact the pertinent instructor regarding a grade correction. Students who are not enrolled during the Fall Semester must also adhere to the end of September deadline. All confirmed graduates must pay graduation fees by the last week of April.

Beginning February 1st, Graduation Applications can be accessed on the school's website under "Events" for those students who have been contacted by the administrator/registrar.

To graduate, each student must have:

1. Meet all the admission requirements.
2. Taken the required classes: 100, 200 and 300 and earned 36 credits.
3. Maintained grades of no less than 65
4. Paid the appropriate graduation fees.

FRUIT UNTO GOD'S GLORY

Many students have graduated from the school. In addition, thousands of others have attended for shorter periods. These trained workers are serving the Lord in many parts of the world, in their own churches, in widely varied avenues and areas of service.

We are heartened by the high standards of fruitful service being rendered by many alumni and former students at home and on many mission fields.

THE DOCTRINAL STATEMENT

- I. We believe in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament as verbally inspired of God, and inerrant in the original writings and that they are of supreme and final authority in faith and life.
- II. We believe in one God, eternally existing in Three Persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
- III. We believe that Jesus Christ was begotten by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary, and is true God and true man.
- IV. We believe that man was created in the image of God, that he sinned and thereby incurred not only physical death but also spiritual death which is separation from God; and that all human beings are born with a sinful nature, and, in case of those who reach moral responsibility, become sinners in thought, word and deed.
- V. We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, as a representative and substitutionary sacrifice; and that all who believe in Him are justified on the ground of His shed blood.
- VI. We believe in the resurrection of the crucified body of our Lord, in His ascension into heaven, and in His present life there for us as High Priest and Advocate.
- VII. We believe in "that blessed hope," the personal, pre-millennial and soon return of our Saviour and Lord Jesus Christ.
- VIII. We believe that all who receive by faith the Lord Jesus Christ are "born again" of the Holy Spirit and thereby become children of God.
- IX. We believe in the bodily resurrection of the just and the unjust, the everlasting blessedness of the saved, and the everlasting conscious punishment of the lost.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

101 — New Testament Survey

A broad look at all of the books of the New Testament, with special emphasis upon the theme and purpose of each book. Designed to give the student a practical working knowledge of the N.T.

104 — Romans

A detailed study from Paul's letter to the Romans of the basic truths concerning man's hopeless condition in sin, and the gracious remedy through the Lord Jesus Christ.

105 — Gospel of John

An analytical study of the Gospel of John with special attention to John's proof of the Deity of Christ.

106 — Bible Doctrine I

A study of man in his original state; his nature, his essential difference from all the rest of creation; his fallen state; sin; and the plan of redemption.

108 — Bible Introduction

This course will cover manuscripts, the canon and translations. Also principles and methods of study and the use of helps.

109 — Christian Evidences - Prophecy I

The first semester presents proof of the inspiration of the Bible and the Deity of Christ. The second semester is a brief survey of God's dealing with man through the ages.

202 — Bible Doctrine II

A special study of what the Scriptures teach concerning God as to His nature, works and existence. These will be a detailed study of the "Trinity" or God's existence in Three Persons: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

203 — Pauline Epistles I

A systematic study of Paul's Epistles: I & II Corinthians; and, I & II Thessalonians.

205 — Synoptic Gospels

As a result of this course, students will become acquainted with the New Testament records from historical, cultural, sociological and religious perspective. Additionally, students will be exposed to the concepts of biblical passages from Matthew, Mark and Luke while examining the literary forms contained in these Gospels. Required reading includes the synoptic Gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke.

209 — Pauline Epistles II

A systematic study of Paul's Epistles: Galatians, Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, I and II Timothy, Titus and Philemon.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

for Students

GENERAL INFORMATION

What is the Baltimore School of the Bible?

The Baltimore School of the Bible is a Christian educational institution dedicated to providing structured, Bible-centered instruction for individuals who desire to deepen their knowledge of Scripture, strengthen their faith, and become better equipped for Christian service.

What is the mission of the Baltimore School of the Bible?

The school seeks to prepare students to study, understand, and faithfully apply the Word of God. Its educational program is designed to promote spiritual growth, sound biblical interpretation, Christian character, and effective service in the local church and community.

Is the Baltimore School of the Bible affiliated with a particular denomination?

The Baltimore School of the Bible serves students from a variety of Christian churches and denominational backgrounds. Instruction is rooted in the authority of Scripture and the foundational doctrines of the Christian faith.

Who may attend the Baltimore School of the Bible?

The school welcomes individuals who are at least 16 years of age and desire serious biblical instruction. Students may include church leaders, ministry workers, Sunday school teachers, new believers, longtime Christians, and individuals preparing for greater service in their churches and communities.

Do I need previous Bible training to enroll?

No. Previous formal Bible education is not required. Courses are designed to support students with varying levels of biblical knowledge and ministry experience.

Do I have to be a pastor or ministry leader to attend?

No. The Baltimore School of the Bible is open to anyone who desires to grow in biblical knowledge and Christian discipleship.

Can students from different churches attend?

Yes. Students from different churches, ministries, and Christian traditions are welcome to enroll.

Must I be a member of a church to attend?

Students are strongly encouraged to maintain an active relationship with a local church. Church membership requirements should be discussed with the school administration if a student has a unique circumstance.

Where can I find the current academic calendar?

The current academic calendar may be obtained through the school's official website, registration materials, student handbook, orientation communications, or the administration office.

Will I receive reminders about important dates?

The administration may provide reminders through email, the school website, and official social media pages. Students remain responsible for reviewing the academic calendar and meeting all published deadlines.

ACADEMIC YEAR AND CLASS SCHEDULE

When does the academic year begin and end?

The academic year generally includes a fall semester and a spring semester. Official semester dates, registration deadlines, orientation dates, examination dates, conferences, and other school activities are published in the annual academic calendar.

When are classes held?

Regular classes are held on Monday and Tuesday evenings from 7:15 p.m. until 9:45 p.m., unless otherwise announced.

How frequently does each course meet?

Each course generally meets once per week on its assigned evening.

How long is each class period?

Classes are ordinarily scheduled in 45-minute instructional periods. The evening schedule may also include chapel or another designated spiritual-development period.

Are classes offered in person or online?

Unless otherwise announced, regular classes are conducted in person. Certain orientations, meetings, special programs, or short-term courses may be conducted through Zoom or another approved virtual platform.

Where are classes held?

Classes are held at:
Central Presbyterian Church
7308 York Road
Towson, Maryland 21204

Does Central Presbyterian Church manage the Baltimore School of the Bible?

No. Central Presbyterian Church serves as the location where classes are held, but the church does not manage school registration, academic records, payments, administrative concerns, or student services. Students should not contact or visit the church office regarding Baltimore School of the Bible business.

BALTIMORE SCHOOL OF THE BIBLE

Academic Year 2026-2027

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS for Students

REGISTRATION AND ENROLLMENT

How do I register for classes?

Students should complete the official registration form available through the Baltimore School of the Bible website or another registration link provided by the administration.

When does registration close?

Registration deadlines are published on the academic calendar. Students should register as early as possible and should not assume that late registration will be available.

May I register after classes have started?

No, registration closes prior to the start of classes.

Is there an application process for new students?

New students must complete the required registration or enrollment information and provide any additional information requested by the school.

Do returning students have to register again?

Yes. Returning students must complete the required registration process for the applicable academic year or semester, as directed by the administration.

What information will I need when registering?

Students should be prepared to provide accurate contact information, an active email address, emergency contact information, church information when requested, and any other details required by the registration form.

Why must I provide an active email address?

Email is one of the school's primary methods of communication. Class notes, announcements, schedule changes, weather notices, and other important information may be distributed electronically.

What should I do if my address, telephone number, or email address changes?

Notify the school administration as soon as possible so that your student record can be updated.

Can I enroll in individual courses without entering the full program?

Course-selection options may depend on the current curriculum, prerequisites, course availability, and the student's academic standing. Students should consult the administration before registering for courses outside the normal sequence.

May I audit a course?

No. The Baltimore School of the Bible does not currently offer course-audit options. Students who enroll in a course are expected to complete the applicable academic requirements.

TUITION, REGISTRATION FEES, AND OTHER COSTS

Does the Baltimore School of the Bible charge tuition?

The Baltimore School of the Bible does not charge tuition.

Is there a registration fee?

Yes. The current registration fee is $150.00. Students should review the registration form and current school materials for the terms associated with the fee.

What does the registration fee cover?

The registration fee helps support enrollment and instructional expenses.

Is the registration fee refundable?

Registration fees are generally nonrefundable. Students should review all course information and registration requirements carefully before submitting payment.

Does the fall registration fee cover the spring semester?

Under the school's current fee structure, the fall registration payment covers the spring semester as well, with no additional spring registration fee. Students should verify the applicable policy each academic year because fees and procedures may be revised.

Are textbooks included in the registration fee?

No. Students are responsible for purchasing their required textbooks.

Are payment arrangements available?

Any payment question or request for special consideration must be directed to the school administration before the applicable registration deadline. Approval is not automatic.

Will I receive a receipt for my payment?

Students should retain all confirmation emails, receipts, and payment records associated with registration.

ORIENTATION

Is student orientation required?

Students are expected to attend orientation when it is scheduled. Orientation provides important information concerning school policies, course expectations, communication procedures, academic responsibilities, and the upcoming semester.

When is orientation held?

Orientation is typically scheduled before the beginning of the fall semester. The exact date, time, and format are published in the academic calendar and communicated by email.

Is orientation conducted in person or online?

Orientation may be conducted through Zoom or another format announced by the administration.

How will I receive the orientation link?

The link will be sent to the email address used during registration. Students should check their inbox, spam folder, and junk folder regularly.

What should I do if I do not receive the orientation information?

Contact the school administration before orientation and confirm that the correct email address is on file.

COURSES AND CURRICULUM

What types of courses are offered?

Courses may include biblical studies, Old and New Testament surveys, individual books of the Bible, Christian doctrine, theology, missions, apologetics, prophecy, Christian education, church history, ministry preparation, and other subjects supporting biblical literacy and Christian service.

How will I know which courses to take?

Students should follow the course sequence or schedule provided by the school. Questions regarding placement or course selection should be directed to the administration.
